Niti Aayog meeting to focus on human capital

PRASANTA SAHU
New Delhi, April 16

THE NITI AAYOG Governing Council, chaired by Prime Minister Narendra Modi, may meet in June to chart a road map to strengthen India's human capital, with a sharp focus on education, skilling, and future-ready jobs.

In the meeting to be attended by chief ministers, the deliberations will underscore the critical role of knowledge, skills, health and capabilities in driving long-term economic growth.

With nearly 70% of India's population in the working-age bracket, policymakers view the demographic dividend as a historic opportunity that must be harnessed through a coordinated, whole-of-government approach.

Officials indicated that the Centre and states will deliberate on strategies to modernise education systems, expand skilling initiatives and align workforce capabilities with emerging industry demands.

Greater convergence across ministries — including education, skill development, youth affairs, health and

MEASURING IMPACT

- 70% of India in working-age bracket; govt sees demographic dividend as an opportunity that must be harnessed
- Strategies to modernise education systems, expand skilling initiatives and align workforce capabilities with industry demands
- A major thrust is also likely on strengthening self-reliance under the Aatmanirbhar Bharat vision

■ All states and Union Territories are expected to be nudged to prepare capacity-building plans in collaboration with the Capacity Building Commission

Ayush — is expected to be a key priority to ensure seamless delivery across the human capital spectrum.

A major thrust is also likely on strengthening self-reliance under the Aatmanirbhar Bharat vision.

The Centre and states may jointly identify products for domestic manufacturing to reduce import dependence, while promoting high-quality production standards aligned with the "Zero Effect, Zero Defect" principle — ensuring minimal environmental impact alongside global competitiveness.

In a push for institutional strengthening, all states and Union Territories are expected to be nudged to prepare capacity-building plans in collaboration with the Capacity Building Commission.

The meeting is also set to highlight the growing importance of artificial intelligence in governance and the urgent need to bolster cybersecurity frameworks to safeguard citizens in an increasingly digital ecosystem.

Deliberations will emphasise outcome-oriented governance, with a focus on improving service delivery, simplifying processes and ensuring last-mile access.

Data-driven monitoring and enhanced inter-departmental coordination are expected to play a central role in translating policy into measurable impact on the ground.

The conference will likely discuss deregulation, technology in governance, AgriStack, tourism development, etc. The discussions aim to promote cooperative federalism and enable states to replicate best practices, ensuring time-bound and tangible progress towards the goal of a developed India.

CM: Maha govt to support export-oriented food industry

MAHARASHTRA CHIEF MINISTER Devendra Fadnis has said that the state government would extend support to the export-oriented food industry.

"Food is a global soft power," he stated during the inauguration of the new Chitale Bandhu Mithaiwale manufacturing facility at Ranje Vision Park in Bhor, near Pune.

Fadnis highlighted that Chitale Bandhu is successfully promoting Marathi culinary culture on the global stage with its unique brand and quality. The Chitale Group, which began with a single store in Pune, has now expanded its presence to 35 countries. "Over four generations, the Chitale Bandhu have not only maintained their business but have also achieved significant growth. Each generation has faced its unique challenges with courage, building the strong global brand that Chitale represents today," he remarked. He added that no other brand in Pune has inspired as many stories and anecdotes as Chitale, especially with its iconic Bakarwadi. FE BUREAU

India, Russia discuss steel sector ties

INDIA AND RUSSIA on Thursday held a round table to strengthen cooperation in the steel sector amid global supply chain challenges, an official release said.

A Russian delegation, comprising representatives from industry and related sectors, joined Indian counterparts for discussions. The meeting enabled constructive engagement and exchange of views on key steel sector issues like raw material sourcing, technological collaboration, equipment manufacturing, and research opportunities, the Steel Ministry said in the release.

EU examines expansion of CBAM to 180 more items

THE EUROPEAN UNION has started examining the proposal to expand the scope of carbon tax and bring 180 new steel and aluminium products under it from January 2028. The European Parliament's Committee on Environment, Climate and Food Safety has proposed to EU Parliament for expanding the scope of CBAM to account for indirect carbon emissions and rejecting use of international carbon credits for compliance. In a draft report issued on April 10, other measures that have been proposed are tightening carbon accounting rules for scrap-based production by including emissions from pre-consumer scrap and examining indirect emissions from electricity use across more sectors. FE BUREAU

KAMDHENU Nxt

TMT BARS

KAMDHENU STEEL

CAUTION NOTICE

Our client Kamdhenu Limited, having its registered office at 2nd Floor, Tower A, Building No.9, DLF Cyber City Phase 3, Gurgaon 122002, Haryana is the registered proprietor of the well-established trademarks "KAMDHENU", "KAMDHENU GOLD" and related variants thereof, which have been extensively used in relation to TMT bars, steel and allied products since the year 1994 and have acquired immense goodwill and reputation across India.

It is brought to the attention of the public that certain parties, including Ashiana Ispat Limited (AIL) have been wrongly using the mark "AL KAMDHENU GOLD" without the authorisation of Kamdhenu Limited.

The Hon'ble High Court of Delhi, by way of a detailed order dated 10/04/2026 passed in suit proceedings CS (COMM) 130/2025 (Ashiana Ispat Limited vs. Kamdhenu Limited) and CS (COMM) 569/2025 (Kamdhenu Limited vs. Ashiana Ispat Limited & Ors.) has prima facie held that:

- The mark "KAMDHENU", "KAMDHENU GOLD" and its variants are associated with and belong to Kamdhenu Limited;
- The mark "AL KAMDHENU GOLD" is deceptively similar and its use by AIL is likely to cause confusion and association with Kamdhenu Limited;
- AIL had been operating as a licensee of Kamdhenu Limited and has no independent rights in the trademark "AL KAMDHENU GOLD"

Accordingly, the Hon'ble Court restrained and injuncted Ashiana Ispat Limited and its directors, dealers, distributors and all persons acting for or on its behalf from using the mark "AL KAMDHENU GOLD", any other mark containing the word "KAMDHENU", "KAMDHENU GOLD" or any other deceptively similar trademarks in any manner or mode including by way of manufacture, sale, advertisement, online listings or otherwise for products such as TMT bars, steel bars, MS pipes, metal pipes or any other allied/cognate products amounting to infringement of Kamdhenu Limited's registered trademarks and passing-off.

Further, the Hon'ble Court directed AIL and all others acting for and on its behalf to disable / remove / take down / block the listings of the products using the Impugned Mark 'AL KAMDHENU GOLD' from all platforms including, e-commerce websites, online and physical marketplaces, its own website and social media platforms. This interim order dated 10/04/2026 is in force with immediate effect and is available on the official website of the Hon'ble Delhi High Court:

https://delhihighcourt.nic.in/app/showFileJudgment/68710042026SC1302025_215142.pdf

In view of the above, the general public, trade, industry, manufacturers, dealers, distributors, builders, contractors and all stakeholders are hereby cautioned against:

- Dealing in, purchasing, manufacturing, stocking, distributing or marketing any goods bearing the mark "AL KAMDHENU GOLD" originating or connected to Ashiana Ispat Limited.
- The public is advised to ensure that they deal only in genuine products of Kamdhenu Limited bearing its authentic trademarks.

Any person/entity found dealing with such violative products shall be doing so at their own risk, cost and consequences, including exposure to civil and criminal proceedings under applicable laws.
